(C) Method of settlement

Notification of the repurchases under the tender offer will be sent to the address of tendering shareholders (or the standing proxy for foreign shareholders) after the conclusion of the tender offer period without delay.

Repurchases will be settled in cash. Tendering shareholders will be able to receive the repurchase amount for the tender offer, less applicable withholding taxes (see note), by wire transfer or method as instructed by the tendering shareholder without delay after the settlement commencement date.

Note: Taxes on shares repurchased under the tender offer

*Please make any decisions after consulting a tax advisor or other professional about specific tax questions.

(a) For tendering shareholders who are residents, or non-residents with a permanent establishment in Japan

When the amount of money received for accepting the tender offer exceeds the amount of the portion of the Company’s capital (or for a consolidated corporation, its consolidated individual stated capital) attributable to the shares that are the basis for that payment (when the per-share repurchase amount is greater than the per-share amount of capital), the amount in excess will be deemed a dividend and taxed accordingly. The amount deemed to be a dividend is subject to a withholding of 20.315% (15.315% for income tax and special income tax for reconstruction and 5% for resident tax) (There will be no special withholding of the 5% resident tax for non-residents with a permanent establishment in Japan). However, if the shareholder is considered a principal shareholder, the withholding is 20.42% (income tax and special income tax for reconstruction only). As a general rule, the amount after deducting the cost of acquiring the shares from the transfer income is subject to declared separate income taxes.

(b) For tendering shareholders who are non-residents without a permanent establishment in Japan

The amount deemed to be a dividend will be subject to withholding of 15.315% (income tax and special income tax for reconstruction only). If the shareholder is considered a principal shareholder, the withholding will be 20.42% (income tax and special income tax for reconstruction only). As a general rule, the transfer income will not be taxed.

(c) For corporate shareholders

when the amount of money received for accepting the tender offer exceeds the amount of the portion of the Company’s capital (or for a consolidated corporation, its consolidated individual stated capital) attributable to the shares that are the basis for that payment, the amount of this excess will be deemed a dividend. As a general rule, the portion deemed to be a dividend is subject to withholding of 15.315% (income tax and special income tax for reconstruction only).

Foreign shareholders who wish to receive an income tax reduction or exemption for such deemed dividends pursuant to an applicable tax treaty should submit to the Tender Offer Agent a tax treaty application form together with a tender offer application form.

II. Change of Major Shareholder

1. Background for the change
   The Company conducted the Tender Offer from August 1, 2022 to August 29, 2022, and ended on August 29, 2022. As a result of the Tender Offer, the number of voting rights of all shareholders will decrease, which will result in a relative increase in the ratio of the number of voting rights of Toyota Industries Corporation (“Toyota Industries”) to the number of voting rights of all shareholders. Toyota Industries is therefore expected to become a major shareholder of the Company as of September 21, 2022 (settlement commencement date of the Tender Offer).
